

Dear Partners,

The Youth Generation Moldova and Interlog-Association from Germany are calling for partners and participants for its training course “Human Rights in Action – Promote human rights in youth work”. The training of trainers will take place in Chisinau, Moldova from October 9th till 17th. The course is addressed especially to youth workers and people working within the Youth in Action-Programme of the EU.

Topic

The Training course will present different possibilities to implement a specific human rights issue in youth work. The “Human Rights Compass” - Course will focus on the special role of NGOs in the human rights framework of different countries. It will show the new advantages for participants in organisations to take responsibility for promoting human rights in their local area, national level or international work. The Course will provide as well the possibility to find new contacts and networks to develop further projects referring to the human right topic. In addition there will a documentation of the overall results worked out by the participants.

For further information concerning the programme please take a look at the draft time schedule attached to this email.

Participants

We are looking for at least 24 participants who have already worked on this topic and have been in touch with commitment for human rights. Participants should at least be older than 18 years. It is also important to us that at least 5 organisations from European Union-states and 5 organisations from EECA-Countries (2 participants per organisation) participate. We will apply the project at the German National Agency of the “Youth in Action”-Programme of the European Union.

Accommodations, visa-fees, excursion, meals and materials are provided for free; travel expenses are reimbursed at 70% of the real costs (cheapest mean of transportation) in return of original tickets.

How to apply

If you are interested in taking part in our Training Course please fill in the attached Part III-Paper. It is important that all papers are send back to us till May 15th 2008! We need the Part III-Paper in original. So please send it to:
